"Dear Old N.C.C."
The sloping hills,
the verdant green
The lovely blossoms,
beauteous sheen

Surround our college proud and gay
Where wave our colors
Maroon and Gray

What matters it how far we roam
Our thots will oft return to home

And hearts will e'er
be true to thee,
Our Alma Mater

togetherness is... Giving

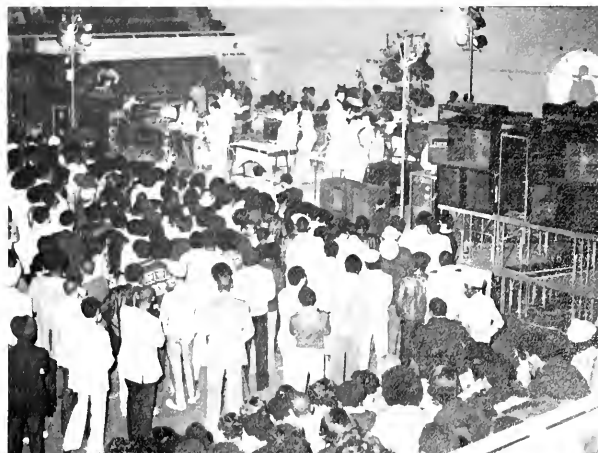

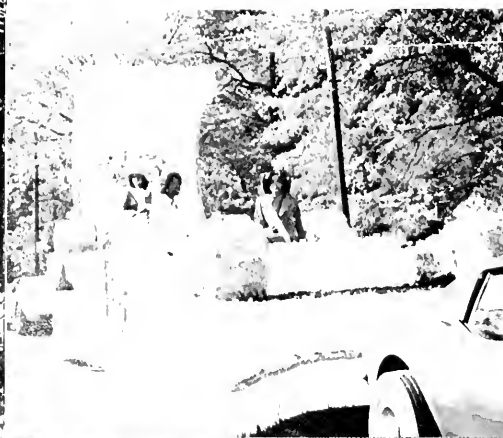

During Homecoming Week, the NCCU Student Government Association presented two homecoming extravaganzas on Friday, October 22 and Saturday, October 23. Blue Magic, Roy Ayers' Ubiquity, and Grover Washington and his Band performed to the satisfaction of the crowd. The gym was packed with students and non-students both feeling the vibrations from the show.

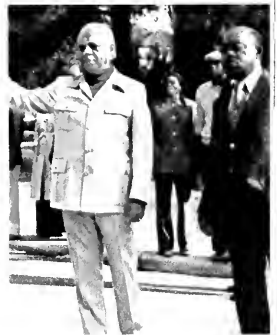

Saturday night, the gym was jammed again with people getting down with Sun, Brother to Brother, and the New Central Connection Unlimited.

Although, most Eagles were disappointed with the outcome of the game, Homecoming reached its peak with the outstanding shows sponsored by the SGA. Everyone got off at the Eagle's Nest.

PARADE '76 "Reflections Of You"

Sleek and sassy, cool and smooth, elegant and chic. So went the reactions to the Fashion Show which was held as one of the Homecoming Festivities. Never before had so many NCCU students looked so cosmopolitan and debonaire. The models were equals to those of the Ebony Fashion Fair, showing the same grace and style. And styling they were. From swimwear to lingerie, from evening wear to leisure wear, from leathers to furs. Wearing mean brims, carrying sleek umbrellas, stepping in platforms, shining and glittering. That was the smoking Eagle Fashion Show.

The homecoming festivities at the Eagle's nest were jolted when the Hawks of the University of Maryland-Eastern Shore flew into EAGLELAND and defeated the NCCU football team.

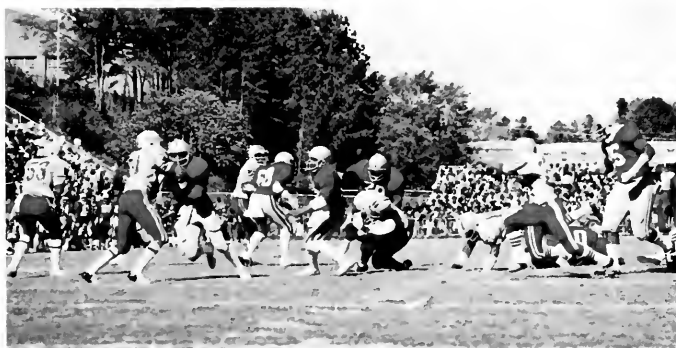

The Eagles, in their splendid MAROON & GRAY scored first and the crowd sat back anticipating a fulfilling homecoming-victory. However, in the second quarter, the Hawks scored and took the lead.

Still fighting for victory, the Eagle team rose and scored again to take the lead. However, for the second time, the point after touchdown was no good. The Eagles scored once again and accumulated a grand total of 19 points.

Then the Hawks flew in for two more scores and a grand total of 21 points. Thus, the mighty Eagles had to settle for a shattering defeat at the hands of UMES Hawks.

In Memoriam

Mr. Henry Lindsey Brooks, Assistant Professor of English at NCCU died on Thursday morning, October 21, 1976 while teaching a class. Many of his students gave him first aid, but their efforts to save his life failed.

We, the students of North Carolina Central University, will not soon forget Mr. Brooks. He was a familiar face in the Student Union as well as in the English classes. He possessed a remarkable ability to understand students and relate to them.

Mr. Brooks was a native of Selma, Alabama. He came to NCCU in 1963 from Florida A&M. He attended Prairie Institute in Selma and graduated from high school in Miller's Ferry, Ala. Mr. Brooks received the BA from Knoxville College and the MA from Atlanta U. He did additional graduate study at the University of Iowa, Columbia and Duke Universities.

Mr. Brooks is survived by his widow, Mary Brooks; a daughter, Lynette Brooks; other relatives and a host of students who will truly miss his often funny comments.

Dedication

During the course of one's collegiate life, there sometimes appears a guiding light. That light serves as a strong supportive force which can influence the life of a student greatly. There are students on this campus who have been fortunate enough to come face to face with a guiding light and thus emerge as stronger and more intelligent individuals.

Three such guiding lights are Dr. Leroy T. Walker, Dr. James F. Blue, and Mr. Caulbert A. Jones. To these men, the 1977 EAGLE is dedicated.

DR. JAMES F. BLUE serves North Carolina Central University as its Dean of Students. He received his B.S. from North Carolina A&T State University. He received his M. Ed. and Ph. D. from the University of North Carolina.

"DEAN" as he is affectionately called, first came to NCCU in 1963 as an instructor of Physical Education. During his tenure here, he has served as an advisor to the Student Government Association, EAGLE Yearbook, Physical Education Majors' Club, and academic advisor to Freshmen Physical Ed. majors.

DR. BLUE's community activities include positions as NCCU's representative for Boy Scouts of America, a member of the NAACP, co-founder of the NCCU Booster's Club, and NCCU's chairman of the United Fund, just to name a few.

It is this type of continuous service to others which makes DR. JAMES F. BLUE a valuable asset to the Eagle community.

It is often rare when college students can boast of knowing and being taught by a "legend." The name, LEROY T. WALKER is synonymous with the word legend. He served as the Head Coach of the USA Olympic Track and Field Team during the most recent games in Montreal, Canada. Dr. Walker has also coached Olympic track teams from Ethiopia and Israel as well as serving as a consultant to Olympic teams from Kenya, Trinidad and Jamaica.

Dr. Walker has also organized and coordinated International track meets such as the USA-Pan African Meet, the USA-USSR meet and the USA-Pan Africa-Germany track meet. He has been honored as Track coach of the Year by numerous organizations. In 1975, Dr. Walker was elected to the N.C. Hall of Fame.

"Doc", as he is called by many, graduated from Benedict College. He then received his M.A. from Columbia University and his Ph.D. from New York University. In 1945, after coaching at Prairie View State, Bishop College and Benedict College, Dr. Walker came to NCCU. Between 1945 and 1973, he coached basketball, football and track. He also served as Chairman of the Physical Education department. It was Dr. Walker who built the NCCU track team into one with numerous All-Americans of National prominence.

On May 14, 1976, Dr. Walker was awarded the Oliver Max Gardner Award which is the only statewide honor given by the Board of Governors of the UNC.

MR. CAULBERT A. JONES joined the faculty of NCCU at the invitation of Dr. James E. Shepard in September, 1947. He served the university as associate professor of history until June, 1976, when he retired.

Mr. Jones graduated from Howard University and received his M.A. at Columbia University.

During his tenure here at NCCU, Mr. Jones was advisor to more than fifty student organizations. Among them were EAGLE Yearbook, 1952 and 1955; Baptist Student Union, three years; NAACP College Chapter, three years; Phi Alpha Theta, Founder and advisor for twenty six years; Student Government, ten years; Foreign Students Association, four years; Student Legislative Assembly, five years; African Students Association, two years. Mr. Jones also served as an advisor to the Sophomore, Junior and Senior Classes.

The C. A. Jones History and Social Science Club is appropriately named after him.

In January, Mr. Jones died as the result of a heart attack. The world has truly lost a magnificent scholar as well as a most inspiring educator. Those students who had the opportunity to be taught by this man will not soon forget him.

Gregory is given award on behalf of NCCU.

New Central Connection Unlimited

Donald Byrd has taken NCCU, a group of his music students, under his wing with hopes of launching another recording career.

NCCU, which means New Central Connection Unlimited, Byrd's students at North Carolina Central University, Durham, N.C., has signed with United Artists Records.

Byrd is grooming the group in much the same way as the Blackbyrds, with one exception. NCCU is touring with other groups whereas the Blackbyrds primarily tour with Byrd.

The professor is country-hopping between gigs with both groups. NCCU is currently on tour with Wild Cherry.

The nine men ensemble has been described as being a cross between the Blackbyrds and Earth, Wind & Fire.

CAMPUS LIFE

Alas! Could this be the room of Evel Knievel?

Quit posing, Steve!

Come on, fellas. Give me something to cheer for.

That's better!

With those smiles, they must be coming from a class.

Hey, What's Happening?

We are with one another sometimes and there are no smiles
no easy togetherness only one and one against the grain
we speak sometimes and nothing is said

but where we are apart
there is longing and pain like arguments within ourselves that will not end.

LOVE SONG

Beloved,
I have to adore the earth;
The wind must have heard
Your voice once.
It echoes and sings
like you.
The soil must have tasted
you once.
It's laden with your scent.

The trees honor you in gold and blush when you pass.
I know why the north country is frozen. It has been trying to preserve your memory.
I know why the desert burns with fever. It has wept too long without you. On hands and knees, the ocean begs up the beach, and falls at your feet.
I have to adore the mirror of the earth. You have taught her well how to be beautiful.

Henry Dumas

Music has been an important force in our heritage...

... Songs that are the key to your life.

I wonder if I made the right choice.

Solitude

Checking out the week's activities.

This sho beats going to class.

Who will be this man's next victim?

"Hee hee hee!"

"Then Pryor said..."

"Dip, you better listen to Mrs. Jones."

"And girl, then he said..."

"Hey man, let's go get one!"

"Gee, I can't stand still much longer."

"See, I can count to five."

"Hmmm, wonder how many pro scouts are here today?"

Karla, aren't you tired?

Walk to the right, please!

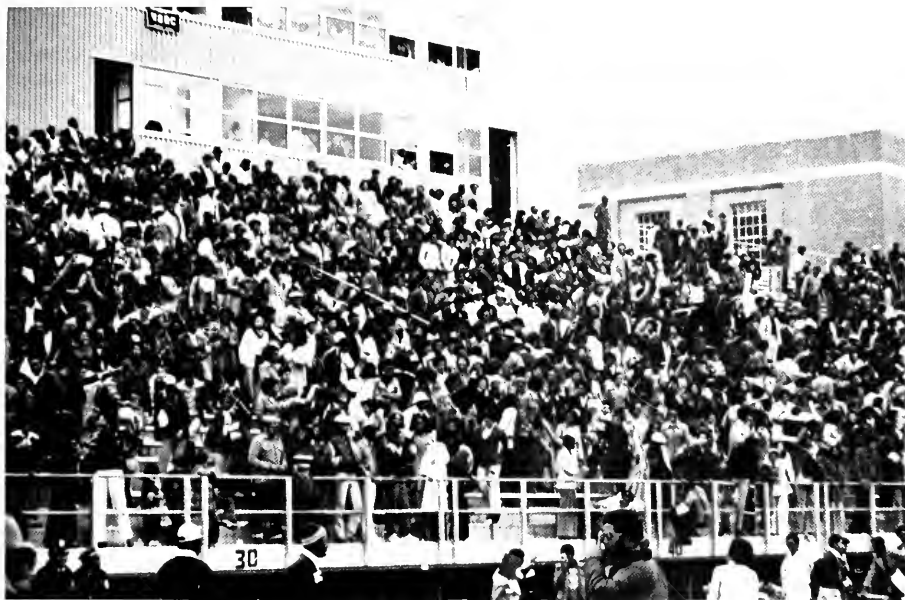

Seems like an interesting discussion.

Now this is the real way to make up your face, girls!

In support of the EAGLES!

Let me tell you about my weekend.

Mmmm, maybe no one will show up for class.

"Watch out, Hines."

"Sure hope there's a job offer on here."

Gazing

I sit gazing at you dungarees, head wrap — so mundane in your attire yet so aesthetically complete

I sit gazing at you watching you fidget as my eyes weight
you down in their candidness

I sit gazing at you efforting to tell you with my eyes the thoughts that trespass in the corridors of my mind

I sit gazing at you
bombarding you with interests and vibrations

There is indeed a certain security I experience in my gazing. A security that could be violated if I were to speak and find that my interest in you can not be reciprocated

I sit gazing at you trying to decide what course of action I should take.

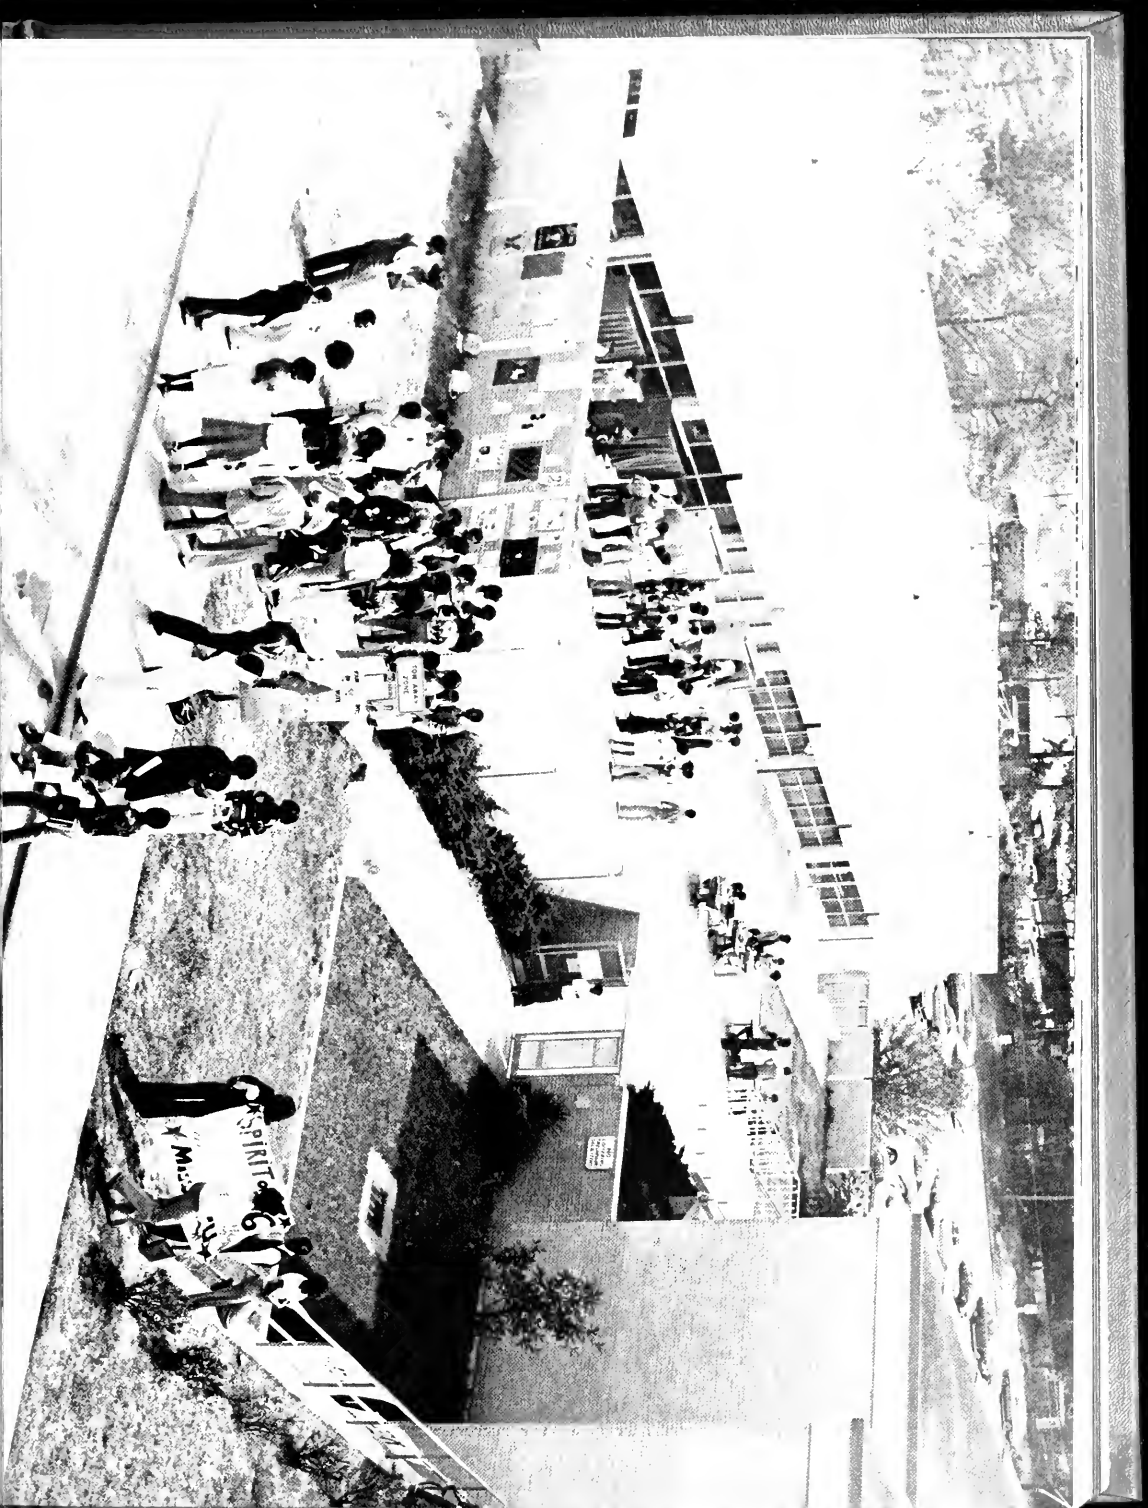

Ahmad

Full bodied conversations
Fall from his mouth
In tones so familiar to me
Mellow tones . . . sweet tones Pseudo tones it seems
That hurt soothe pierce
My soul
Make me want to Make wild love to him
Make me want to Make him mine
Make me want to Leave this nigga alone
Before I start believing
He's anything but JIVE.

"Yeah!"

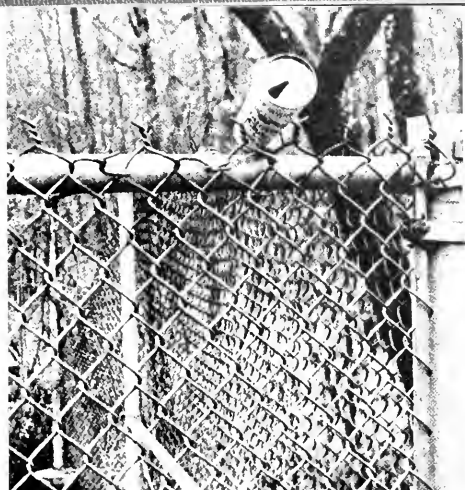

We did... Ha Ha Ha!!

These students drive you crazy!

Jello! Wow!

Well, I guess you're right.

And that's supercalifragilisticexbealidocious!

You're

WHO'S WHO

A recognized institution of the American academic community, the WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES Award is conferred annually upon outstanding student leaders. Selections are made by campus nominating committees and based on decidedly above average academic standing, community service, leadership ability and future potential. Forty-eight seniors at North Carolina Central University made WHO'S WHO. They, along with a short biographical sketch, are featured on these pages.

FRANCES ANN WALDEN is a graduate of Northeast Guilford High and a native of Sedalia, N.C. She is a Biology major and plans to attend graduate school to become a biological researcher. She has held membership in the Biology Club, Big Sisters, Chemistry Club, Kappa Kittens, Women's Steering Committee, Eagleson Dorm Council, Allied Health Careers Council, Pre-Dental Club and the SNEA. Frances is also a member of AKA.

ROCKY P. BOONE is a native of Philadelphia and a graduate of Gates County High School. Involvement in extra-curricular activities has been a very important part of Rocky's stay at NCCU. He is Sr. Class President, President of the Lampodas Club, a member of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, National Association of Black Accountants, Phi Beta Lambda, Co-Op Club and SGA Cabinet. Rocky is an Accounting major and hopes to get a job in Accounting.

THERESA JANNEATTA GRAHAM is a Public Administration major who plans to attend grad school specializing in Personnel Administration. She is a native of Spring Lake N.C. and graduated from E.E. Smith High School. Theresa's campus activities include membership in the Public Administration Club, Delta Sigma Theta, Off-Campus Club, Jr. Class President in 1975-1976, and the American Society of Public Administration. The Way We Were

On August 25, 1973, I arrived at North Carolina Central University a little apprehensive of what would occur, glad to be away from home, frightened, confused, and determined not to ask anyone for anything, for fear that I would look like I was out-of-place.

I felt that I had to go to every party; if I missed one, I would be considered tired. Therefore, I bumped everynight to the records of "Funky Stuff", and "Ecstasy".

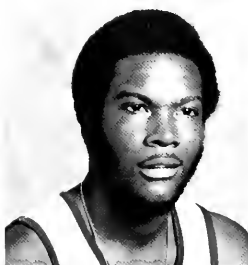

I met a dude at the Elk's lodge and he was really something. Everynight I'd get off with Barry White's "I've got so much to give."

Now, It's time for me to leave (hopefully). Good-bye to the good times and the bad. "World, are you ready for me?"

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

Lift every voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the Harmonies of Liberty,
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us
Facing the rising sun
Of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Dear NCCU Community,

If after viewing this yearbook, a smile creeps across your face, then my goal has been accomplished. Being Editor-in-chief of a college yearbook is often a lonely job as well as a tremendous responsibility. However, it is also an honor for it makes me the keeper of many of your memories since a yearbook is a collection of memories.

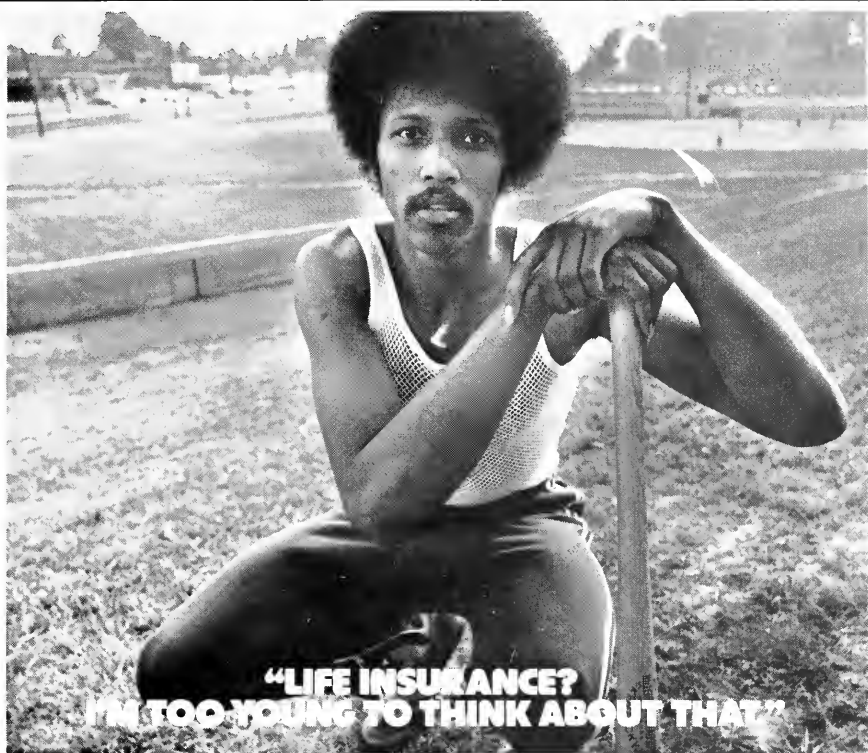

The main objective for this year was to show as many aspects of NCCU as possible. I offer my apologies to those who were not included through any fault of the staff. However, if it was your fault, then better luck next time!

I hope that while viewing this book, each of you will attempt to forget some of the negative experiences you may have had during 1976-77 and look at this production with objectivity and compassion for those students who worked so hard to make it possible.

Masterpiece '77 is the culmination of a year of hard work and sacrifice. My sincere thanks goes out to all of those who were dedicated to the task of producing this yearbook. I would also like to thank those of you who "put up" with me and/or gave me words of encouragement during this difficult year. Sincere appreciation also goes out to Dean Blue, the Student Union Personnel, Mr. Rivera, Campus Echo and Mr. G. S. Nixon.

I hope that all of you will agree with me in saying that Masterpiece '77 is just that — a masterpiece.

In the Spirit of an Eagle,
Wendy Louise Freeland

"LIFE INSURANCE?
I'M TOO YOUNG TO THINK ABOUT THAT."

There's a simple fact about life insurance that a lot of people ignore: the longer you wait to buy it, the higher the premiums will be.

By buying young, you can get better coverage, pay less, and build up cash values early in life.

This is money you can use to help send your children to college, help make the down payment on a new home, or help with any other important goal in life.

But the best time to start is right now. And the best person to get started with is your North Carolina Mutual agent. Think young. Give us a call.
